Update - 24th March 2020

Dear Valued Customer,

Joseph Dahdah & Co is closely monitoring the impact of the coronavirus (COVID-19) at a local and global level. The safety of our employees, clients and suppliers is our foremost priority. As a company, we are constantly following the guidelines of the World Health Organization (WHO), the Centres for Disease Control (CDC) and local country authorities.

We are extremely committed to providing the service and support to all our valued customer, for all their clothing and apparel requirements. Currently, we are operating as usual, however please be understanding if possible delays occur due to network pressures or any further disruptions imposed on us.

What Joseph Dahdah is doing:

- Our staff are taking every step outlined by the authorities, and in line with our company policies to prevent the spread of this virus in our workplace and in their personal lives.
- Our plan is to keep our warehouse operational to pick and process all orders.
- Some of our office staff are working from home, and the business is currently setup to facilitate in line with the current social distancing guidelines, we will not be taking any in-store sales, however orders will be accepted via email and dispatched accordingly
- All Pickups will be by appointment only
- Our website can accept all orders for online clients 24/7

Our Supply Chain update:

- Our offshore suppliers are operational and back to normal.
- Factory lead times are returning to normal after the extended CNY holidays and forced shut down across the Asia due to the COVID-19 virus.
- Air freight from Asia is delayed as the reduced airline traffic is causing a backlog at the present time.
- Sea freight is operational as usual

We believe that by taking these steps, as well as constantly monitoring updates from the relevant Authorities, we are well prepared to handle potential future disruptions due to the COVID 19 outbreak.

We thank you for your continued support and loyalty to Joseph Dahdah & Co.
